

SHOT ANSWERS CHALLENGE OF A WATCHMAN

Prowler Kills Guardian Who Stopped Him on Wee-hawk Heights.

SLAYER GETS AWAY.
Escapes Before Residents Aroused by Shot Reach
His Dying Victim.

Henry Schmidt, a watchman on Wee-hawk Heights, N. J., was shot and killed early to-day by a man whom he encountered prowling around the yard in the rear of the residence of Mr.
Wee-hawk, No. 22 Boulevard Loop, Highwood Park.

The murderer escaped and there is no clue to his identity beyond the meagre description furnished by Schmidt before he died.

The section patrolled by Schmidt is given over to his residence. There have been numerous burglaries along the Wee-hawk Heights of late and the watchman was particularly vigilant.

It was nearly daylight when he saw a man skulking along in the shadows on Boulevard Loop. The man departed in the direction of the residence of Mr. Wee-hawk and Schmidt followed him in.

"What are you doing here?" asked the watchman.

"None of your business," replied the stranger, who had drawn a revolver.

Schmidt made a dash for the man, but was stopped by a bullet that penetrated his abdomen. The shot caused several residents of the neighborhood but when they reached Schmidt's side his assailant had escaped.

The wounded watchman was carried to the residence of Dr. Bond Watson, where he was treated by Dr. Bond Watson.
Until an ambulance arrived from North Hudson Hospital, Schmidt died soon after the hospital was reached.

His relatives are endeavoring enough to give a description of his assailant to Broadman Mitchell. The murderer, according to Schmidt's description, is about 5 feet 7 inches tall, dark of complexion and of medium build. He wore a dark overcoat and a black derby hat.
Schmidt lived at No. 2 Rutgers place, Wee-hawk Heights. He was widely known and popular, and the authorities are bending every effort toward the hard task of finding his slayer.

SHIP GOES DOWN IN SEA COLLISION; ALL ABOARD SAVED

Mystery of Wreckage on Jersey Coast Cleared by Report of Captain.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 2.—Capt. Delany, of the steamer Porto Rico, which arrived here to-day from New York, reported passing the schooner Elizabeth Palmer at 4 P. M. yesterday, ten miles southeast of Hog Island, the last-named vessel reporting that she had been in collision off Barnegat last Saturday night with a vessel whose name Capt.
Delany could not understand.

The unknown vessel was sunk and the Palmer took off the crew and has them on board.

Despatches from different points in New Jersey during the last few days told of wreckage that had floated ashore indicating the loss of a ship, the identity of which was not known.

The report of Captain Delany evidently clears up the sea mystery to a large degree.

A despatch from Cape Henry to the Maritime Exchange says the tug imperial passed in the Chesapeake Bay the schooner Elizabeth Palmer at 11:30 A.
M. to-day. The schooner's bowsprit was damaged.

NO HORSE STRONG ENOUGH TO CARRY COL. MARSHALL.

So 350-Pound Army Officer Will Probably Be Retired for Not Making the Riding Test.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—President Theodore Roosevelt and Secretary Taft will this evening devote considerable time to consideration of the question as to what course shall be followed regarding army officers who failed to "make good" in the present horseback riding test prescribed by special order of the President. It is known that several engineer officers in charge of river and harbor and other public works necessarily will be placed on the retired list should the report of the riding board be followed.

Among this number is Col. Marshall, in charge of the Ambrose Channel improvement in New York, who failed to ride because his horse could not be heavy enough to carry him. Col.
Marshall weighs 350 pounds and the advice of army physicians was that if he mounted a horse it probably would fall and result in the injury of the officer.

In White Sale Economies

A Happy New Year for Thousands of Women

THIS annual white sale gathers force daily, as word of its splendid economies spreads and more women learn that NO MACY WHITE SALE OF OTHER YEARS OFFERED BETTER VALUES.

In many instances the BEST values of other years are BETTERED materially, not alone in Undergarments but in the allied lines involved.

Greatest interest centres in the stock of Undergarments—the main display on the second floor and overflow displays on the main floor and basement.

If you had the skill and the time and the inclination to fashion such garments as are offered in this sale—garments as well made and as daintily trimmed—you could not hope to produce them for anything like the low prices prevailing.

Best way and fairest way is to compare Macy White Sale values with other white sale offerings.
We court such comparisons—and you in every possible way to make them. Sale stocks, independent of the very low-priced garments in the Underprice Basement, include:

Night Gowns at 49c, 69c, 89c, 99c to $43.24

Chemis s at 49c, 69c, 79c, 89c to $16.74

Corset Covers at 19c, 24c, 29c, 39c to $14.24

Drawers at 19c, 29c, 39c, 49c to $19.49

Underskirts at 49c, 69c, 79c, 89c to $85.49

A most attractive feature of this sale is the display of

French Hand-Made Undergarments

of which the following values are representative:—

Chemises, of nainsook, hand-embroidered and finished with eyelets and ribbon. $1.79

Drawers, of nainsook, finished with hand-embroidered ruffle and lace edge. $1.98

Night Gowns, of nainsook, hand-embroidered and finished with eyelets and ribbon. $3.69

Apart from the White Sale Array of Muslin, Cambric and Nainsook Undergarments on the second floor, there is a remarkably interesting spread of Waists, Petticoats, Kimonos; Mis-es, Infants' and Children's Apparel

Such stocks are characterized by an underpricing as noteworthy as characterizes the Undermislins.

Waists and Silk Petticoats

Representative of the splendid values this annual White Sale affords:

$1.50 Waists at 99c—Of sheer batiste, backs and fronts finished with fine tucks; lace-trimmed stock collar and cuffs.

$2.25 Waists at $1.49—Of mercerized batiste, with V yoke of baby Irish lace, embroidery medallions and Val. lace insertions and fine tucks.

Waists at $1.98—Of all-over embroidery; entire garment of eight rows of cluster tucking; attached collar and cuffs, tucked and inserted with lace.

$5.75 Petticoats at $4.79—Of extra heavy taffeta silk, in black, staple colors and evening shades, with deep accordion pleating, finished with circular ruffle and percaline dust ruffle.

Furs at Special Prices.
